CHAMPAGNE

HENRI GIRAUD

Brilliant representative, in a modern style of the still wines of the Champagne region, it happens to be the only Aÿ Grand Cru Coteaux Champenois Blanc in the history of the Champagne region. It knows how to take advantage of the contribution of wood without losing the freshness and distinction that characterize our terroir.

Fluid and warm, its delicate texture is astonishing. Signifying the origin of the wine, this rare pearl will let the limestone fill your mouth.
